CAMERA REVEALS WORLD TEACHER OF BAHAIISM

ONE NEGRO BISHOP HEARS PLEA FOR AMALGAMATION WITH WHITES.

HERE AS LIVING MESSIAH

Abdul Baha, a venerable Persian now touring America as leader of the Bahai movement for a universal religion, discussed results of intermarriage last night.

One of the main features of the movement is the promotion of intermarriage between white and black races. The Bahai movement advocates the idea that all races are equal, and that there should be no discrimination based on skin color.

Abdul Baha, who is a member of the Bahai faith, emphasized the importance of love and understanding among all people. He emphasized that love is the key to breaking down the barriers that divide us.

The Bahai movement also promotes the idea of service to humanity. Abdul Baha spoke about the need for everyone to work together to create a better world.

Abdul Baha's message resonated with the audience, who listened attentively to his words. The Bahai movement continues to grow in popularity, and many people are drawn to its message of love and equality.
